

American-Romanian Soprano Eva Gheorghiu is a graduate student of Guildhall School of Music & Drama with Master degrees in both Music and Performance.

Eva's most recent and notable performances include Sandman in Humperdinck's Hansel and Gretel with British Youth Opera (2021), Nedda in Leoncavallo's Pagliacci with Aylesbury Opera (2020), as well as the soprano soloist in Elijah with the Banbury Choral Society (2019). Eva has also recently been part of the Chorus for Tchaikovsky's Eugene Onegin at Opera Holland Park (2022), and was part of Rogue Opera's online concert series as a soloist.

Whilst at Guildhall, as a student of John Evans, she performed in various opera scenes including roles such as Tatyana (Eugene Onegin), Fiordiligi (Così fan tutte), Countess (Le Nozze di Figaro), and Norina (Don Pasquale), as well as song recitals. During this time Eva worked on a series of workshops with primary and secondary school children on Mozart's The Magic Flute for Longborough Festival Opera and later that same year she performed as the soloist with LSO Brass and the London Symphony Chorus with additional choirs in their Christmas Concert (2017) at the Barbican.

In spring of 2015, she graduated from The Juilliard School with a Bachelor's Degree in Music as a student of Edith Wiens. Whilst at Juilliard, Eva performed as Susanna in Mozart's Le Nozze di Figaro and as Geraldine in Barber's A Hand of Bridge. Whilst at Juilliard, Eva was a soloist with The Olympia Symphony Orchestra and attended The Franz-Schubert Institute in Baden bei Wien, Austria. In 2014, Eva attended Songfest in Los Angeles, California, where she was made a SongFest Colburn Fellow and in 2016, Eva won First Prize (Tier II) in the James Toland Vocal Arts Vocal Competition in Oakland, California.

This summer, Eva will perform as Mistress Page in British Youth Opera's new production of Sir John in Love by Vaughan Williams.

Eva has been a recipient of the Cecilia Entner Scholarship, Edwina Eustis Endowed Scholarship, Joan and Robert Arnow Scholarship, Mary E. Birsh Scholarship, P.J. Hoyland Memorial Scholars, R. Maurice Boyd Scholarship for Vocal Studies, and the William R. Hearst Scholarship at The Juilliard School. She has also been a proud recipient of the Guildhall Scholar Award at Guildhall School of Music & Drama.
